A STATEMENT recently appeared in a Strait paper to the effect that the recent experiment of employing a number of Chinese as policemen at Singapore had proved a failure. We believe this is not the case. but that, on the contrary, the experiment has resulted so far very satisfactorily; and strong proof of this is to be found in the fact that an application has been made to Hongkong for an additional contingent of Chinese to join the Police Force at Sings-

THE Warrant Officers, Staff Scrgeants and Sergeants of the lat Battalion A. & S. Highlanders gave a very successful dance at the City Hall last night. There was a large company, and among those present were Vice Admiral Sir F. W. Richards, Major General Digby Barker, Capt. Pec, of the Imperiouse, Col. Dancing took place both in St George's and St Androw's Halls, and excellent music was supplied by the Band of the Regiment. Of the nine hundred who were actually in the engagement only six now remain in the Regiment, namely, Major Tottecham, Sergt.-Major Williamson, Colour-Sergt. Mack and Sergeauts Armstrong, Newport and Thomas.

THE Singapore Free Press says :- We hear that a desire to shine at football has fired the spirits of some of the Chinese youths of the town, and that a match will take place at Hong Lim Green on Saturday next, There should be some fun as the players use their national shoos, slacks and touchangs.

A NEW FEATURE IN PROSPECTUSES, The promoters of the Quadruple Delivery Machine Company are making a bold attempt to nullify the provisions of the Directors' Liability Act. The customary waiver clause relating to contracts which may be within the meaning of Section 38 of the Companies Act, 1867, is now supplemented by one of almost sublime audacity. Applicants for shares, says the prospectus, 'shall also be deemed absolutely to waive all rights to compensation under the Directors' Liability Act, 1890. That is to say, if there should happen to be in the prospectus any untrue statement, which the promoters or directors have not reas nable ground for believing to be true, shareholders who may subscribe on the strength of the misleading representation are to be 'absolutely' baired the right to sue given by the Act of last year. . . If a waiver clause of this sweeping and comprehensive character is to hold good, then every shareholder will be shut out from any and every chance of pecuniary redress, no matter how false and misleading may have been the statements in the proshares. But it is extremely doubtfol if such a clause as we have quoted pussesses any validity at all. Financial News.

amusements provided was pigeon-shooting. The Prince was accompanied by Captain Holford, and amongst those invited to meet him were Lord Shafteabury. Sir George-Wombwell, Captain George Bryan, Mr and Mr. Pease, Mr and Mrs Menzies, and Mr Berkeley Levett. "It was the Prince,' says the Daily Chronicle, who kept the bank on the first nights. On one occasion the bank lost to Sir W. Gordon-Cumming's side the table. The Prince paid Sir William &5. There is another £10 here, Sir, said Sir William. The Prince at once paid it, but added that he wished the players would place their stakes where they could be seen. The Prince meant nothing suspicious, we may add, by the remark, nor is there any. thing in the remark by itself to reflect on Sir W. Gordon Camming. But the observation, which was delivered with some emphasis, was recalled by some of the party afterwards. 'It was the interview between the Prince and Sir William, adds the Chronicle, and not the representations of General Owen Williams and Lord Coventry, which induced Sir William to sign the compromising document.
